

Partition 2010 7 Parcelles 2ème Lecture

Sélèque's late-disgorged 2010 Extra-Brut Partition 2ème Lecture saw a mere 1.5 grams per liter dosage in January 2020 after the better part of a decade on the lees. It's showing nicely, even if it antedates the (above all, viticultural) progress that's beginning to make itself felt in Jean-Marc's wines, offering up aromas of dried citrus, freshly baked bread, nougat and spices. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, layered and chalky, with tangy acids and a saline, persistent finish.
