

Weingut Sybille Kuntz

Lieser Niederberg-Helden, Mosel

Orange Riesling 2020

Boldly orange in color, this is one of few orange wines produced in any large-ish quantity in the Mosel—for now. Kuntz's goal here is to make sure that even though it's an orange wine, it still smells like riesling. She has more than accomplished this, with fresh apricot and other peak-of-summer stone fruits aligning with some oxidative notes of apple and earth.
