

Château Haut-Monplaisir

Cahors

Cuvée Pur Plaisir

2019: Ripe blackberries, dark cherries, licorice, dried violets and cloves on the nose. Some walnuts and chocolate orange, too. Medium-bodied with firm, sleek tannins. Fresh, supple and polished. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold.

93 pts– jamessuckling.com, March 2022

2018: This is a big dense wine with mint aromas and dark black fruits. It has density and concentration as well as structure and longevity. The wine is impressive and powerful, set to age for many years.

95 pts– Roger Voss, The Wine Enthusiast, Cellar Selection, October 2022

Raspberries, currants, lavender, cloves, walnuts and lemon zest on the nose. Medium-bodied with firm, tight-grained tannins. Structured and layered with a delicious finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold.

92 pts– jamessuckling.com, March 2022

2016: This top wine from an organically run estate is powerful. Black fruits aged in new wood have a perfumed, spicy character as well as layers of toastiness. The rich, complex texture of the wine, with minerality contrasting the sweet berry flavors, sets it up for aging.

95 pts– Roger Voss, The Wine Enthusiast, Top 100 Cellar Selections 2019

2015: This will be an impressive, rich wine, never overpowering, very much in the measured style of this estate.

94 pts– Roger Voss, 2020

2014: Produced from organic, low-yielding old vines and wood aged for nearly two years, the wine is concentrated and dense.

95 pts– Roger Voss, 2017

2012: This powerful and impressive expression of pure Malbec is generous while also solid and firm.

95 pts– Roger Voss, 2016

2011: Old vines and low yields have concentrated this wine wonderfully. It is the essence of the stony, chalk and clay soil, powerfully driven by its dark fruits and immense tannins.

94 pts– Roger Voss, 2015